

Per-decision cost: the probe itself is negligible;
the boundary-detection call dominates

